? It is the time to plot, plan & draw! No need to be a fine artist or a landscape architect. You know what your yard looks like & you have ideas for what you want it to look like. ? How to Get Started? First, grab that graph paper. Second, get out your measuring tape and measure the length and width of your garden. Map that out on the graph paper, including any curves or dips, so you have an accurate representation of the shape of your garden. We prefer using a 1? to 1? ratio, using each square inch on the paper as a square foot in the garden. Plants like breathing room as they grow, so we must consider the mature size of a plant when plotting. ? Useful information to record includes: Date Location Project Plain key/Legend ? Features of this book include : The first page has a place the name of the owner Cover Finish: Beautiful matte cover. Dimensions:8.5 x 11 inch . Pages: 120. 1/8 inch graph paper has eight squares per inch. Precision lines of ruled paper are even and consistent for accurate measurements. ? As a class project, in Ms. Shawna Lettau's 5th grade class at James Dougherty Elementary School in Dublin, California, the class decided, with the suggestion and assistance of their teacher, to create a class coloring book. The idea for the coloring book was the result of a recent art lesson. During that art lesson the teacher utilized graph paper to introduce students to geometric design creation. Following the basic design lesson students were given time to use their artistic skills to draw their own geometric designs and give their work of art an interesting name. Because the finished designs and coloring pages were very creative and well done...Ms. Lettau approached a relative, with knowledge of book publication, to assist in the book format and publication procedures. The book also includes interesting thoughts about the students favorite colors, shapes, and school subjects. Each was also asked to give a fun or funny fact about themselves and also to suggest what they wanted to do or be in the future. Finally, each penned a special message addressed to their Room 14 classmates.

Graph paper has many uses. Here are some possible ones: Design projects, mapping for board/video/roleplay games, designing floorplans, tiling or yard landscaping, playing pen and pencil games, planning embroidery, cross stitch or knitting. Some occupational therapists use squared paper for writing practice. Artists may use grids to copy pictures. Programmers, engineers and scientists may prefer graph paper for notes that involve formulas.
