Space Marine Grey Knights Codex

Unlike almost all other Space Marine Chapters, the Grey Knights do not follow the tenets of the Codex Astartes in the matter of force organisation. The Grey Knights' Chapter hierarchy, like that of the Space Wolves and Black Templars, is drastically different from that of other Codex -compliant Space Marine Chapters.

I know the new space marine codex includes basically nothing for Grey Knights, but I have been hearing/seeing a few changes around the internet, that most people seem to think apply to Grey Knights. The ones I've picked up on (and there could be more) are: The change to how "and they shall know no fear works" applies to GK

9th edition space marine codex changes for Grey Knights ...

The Grey Knights are a Space Marines Chapter, though unlike all other Chapters it was specifically founded for one purpose, and one purpose alone: to hunt down and destroy any and all Daemonkind encroaching upon The Emperor 's realm.

Grey Knights - 1d4chan

While GK are technically Space Marines, they are a seperate army for all intents and purposes. There is a few units overlapping (transports), but those can be found in our codex. So grab our 8th Ed stuff, or if you prefer, just wait for our new codex. level 2

Grey Knights/Space Marine Force Structure Compare/Contrast - posted in + GREY KNIGHTS +: Are people expecting the 1 Grand Master per detachment rule coming our way? Definitely. I wonder if generic foot GM will ever become a viable option. If that happens, then Grand Masters should gain the ability to re-roll all failed hits, like Draigo, and BCs can re-roll ones.

Grey Knights/Space Marine Force Structure Compare/Contrast ...

For most of 8th Edition, Grey Knights were a bit of a joke. They suffered from having an extremely early codex from well before GW had figured out how to write elite armies, and although they got several rounds of point improvements they remained one of the weakest armies in the game, only played by the most dedicated.

9th Edition Faction Focus: Grey Knights – Goonhammer

After the Horus Heresy, the loyal Space Marine Legions were split into smaller Chapters of a thousand Space Marines, in order to prevent any one person from being able to control so many troops ever again. Over time, the number of chapters has grown, and is said to number a thousand. This is a pictorial list of the chapters named by Games Workshop in official texts, and does not include any ...
